* With deep regret, we announce the passing of Henry Moore on Feb.3, 2007

FOR:

People working actively on the complex issues of inclusion and diversity in communities, workplaces and schools will want to attend this event. This Institute is for Thinkers and Doers. - for people who know there are no easy answers and who are seeking new ways of thinking and acting. This will be a unique adventure in building a learning community together. The faculty see themselves as a jazz combo who have a definite theme and a flair for improvisation - harmonizing with the participants.

WHERE:

Pittman Hall - Ryerson University - downtown Toronto

Ryerson University is in the heart of downtown Toronto, one of the most multicultural cities in the world - rich in diversity, social activism, and culture. We know you will enjoy the Institute, and all that Toronto offers: great food, great theatre, jazz, the Toronto Islands (great roller-blading and walking), an incredible array of affordable restaurants, the Blue Jays, the Raptors, the people. Eat your way through the city. Enjoy!

OUTCOMES:

Guarantees are hard to come by, but if you show up, be present, tell the truth and let go of preconceived luggage you will leave with a:

- ★ network of new colleagues and friends
- ★ knowledge, skills and tools for change
- ★ an individual PATH or MAP- your own unique plan of action to get you in motion in your own place of work/life (if you want one) *

OUR AIM: is that we all celebrate our learning together and leave:

- ★ renewed
- ★ refreshed &
- ★ re-energized to continue our work

- * PATH & MAPS are creative planning tools - that utilize Graphic Facilitation to collect information and develop positive future plans. MAPS focuses on gathering information for planning - based on the Story (history) of a person or organization. PATH goes directly to the future and implements backwards planning to create a step-by-step path to a desirable future.
